The Pistol River Concert Association is proud to announce the return to the Friendship Hall of slide guitar specialist David Jacobs-Strain along with harmonica ace Bob Beach for our May-ish concert. A Cancellation and some scheduling conflicts have necessitated this May show to actually be performed on June 3rd. Ah, but that's Show Biz!

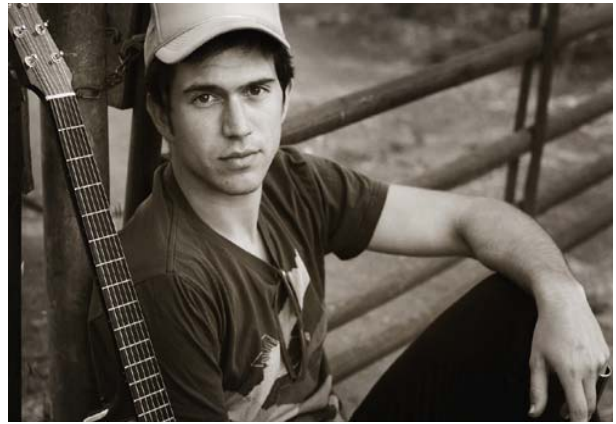

David Jacobs-Strain started playing street corners and farmers markets in Eugene before he was in high school, and has been playing his intense slide guitar at festivals since his teens. Although his music ranges from folk, to rock, and even some flashes of country, there is little doubt that his roots are set deeply into the blues. Besides offering his unique take on a few covers of artists that inspire him, Jacobs-Strain is a prolific and powerful songwriter in his own right. David's lyrics, sung with his powerful and expressive vocals, run from humorous quips to vivid ballads steeped in imagery, many depicting his Oregon upbringing.

Bob Beach has spent over 40 years in the music world, much of it playing a mean harmonica. In addition to volunteering for almost 20 years with the renowned Philadelphia Folk Fest, Beach remains in high demand, recording and performing with national artists, as well as those closer to his Pennsylvania roots. Bob's prowess on the mouth harp, whether in subtle backups, polished accompaniment or raging solos, beautifully compliment David's slide driven blues.

Jacobs-Strain has produced 6 CDs, and toured throughout the US. He has performed at festivals from British Columbia to Australia including the Telluride Bluegrass Festival, Philadelphia Folk Festival, and Blues and Bop in Switzerland. Along the way, David has shared the stage with the likes of Lucinda Williams, Boz Scaggs, Etta James, and George Thorogood.

These are two wonderfully passionate musicians, who feed off of each other's energy to make their live performances nothing short of spectacular. We are truly lucky to have this pair coming to our stage in what is sure to be a great show.

Come join us at the Friendship Hall at 8PM on June 3rd for what promises to be great night of lively slide guitar and harmonica blues with David Jacobs-Strain and Bob Beach.
