KIMO HUSSEY

On August 11, 2018 the Pistol River Concert Association is proud to welcome back to the Friendship Hall, ukulele master Kimo Hussey for a special performance as part of a special Pistol River engagement.

It's not unusual for an artist to be invited to the Friendship Hall more than once, but seeing as Kimo was just here last November, the turn around time is a bit quicker than usual. That's all due to the special circumstances. Hussey will be leading a baritone ukulele retreat titled "De-Mystifying the Baritone Ukulele" August 9-12, which includes performing in our usual monthly concert. And get this, he has agreed that all ticket sales from his performance on the 11th will go to the Concert Association. So we will be getting a great show that doubles as a fundraiser for PRCA!

Those fortunate enough to attend Kimo's previous show can attest to gaining a new appreciation for how beautiful and versatile the ukulele can be, and what a wonderful performer Hussey is. We will no doubt hear a classic Hawaiian tune or two on the 11th - Hawaii is Kimo's native land after all - but most of the show will likely cover songs we've all grown up with, from Sinatra and Elvis to Leonard Cohen.

The retreat is not a workshop for beginners like Kimo held last November. In fact, most of the participants are seasoned baritone uke players that are coming from around the nation. If this is your instrument as well and you would like more information about the retreat, contact Les Stansell at les@stansellguitars.com. As part of the retreat, Kimo and the participants will be having a dinner on Friday night, August 10th that will be open to anyone interested in purchasing a ticket ($50) to attend. In addition to a great meal, you'll be able to visit with Kimo and the musicians attending the retreat, and enjoy some dinner music that Hussey and his friends will be providing. Again, contact Les for the scoop.

This will be great show, and with the addition of the retreat members in the Hall, tickets are sure to sell out fast. So, make your reservations and mark your calendars for August 11th, at 8 PM at the Friendship Hall for a unique night of ukulele with Kimo Hussey!
